Dear Parishioners,

This is Catholic Schools week. Seton School students will be with us at the 11 a.m. Mass this week to help lead our worship. Throughout the week there will be activities that commemorate the importance of Catholic Schools. To take part in activities visit the Seton or Alleman website.

It was once said that the most generous thing that the Catholic Church has ever done in the United States was to begin, maintain and support the Catholic Schools. The question is whether we can continue this important ministry of the church. The main problems are always the same, enrollment and expense.

Is it better for our community if the Catholic Schools are not around? Some might believe this. But the parochial school system offers an alternative for students. This is a healthy thing. Education is not one size fits all. I have attended both public and Catholic colleges, graduate schools and universities. I benefited from experiencing both. I would say that in the end a Catholic education was where I felt more at home and learned the most.

I would encourage parishioners to continue to support Seton School and Alleman High School with donations and by encouraging young parents to explore this option for their children. There is a lot of scholarship money available. Just contact our school administrators at 309-764-5418 to learn more. The young are the future of our church and Society. We need to give them the gift of a Catholic School Education.

May Mother Seton, Fr. Alleman and all the saints watch over our Catholic schools.

Fr. Mark

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

From the time of the Apostles, eyewitness testimony has been one of the most effective ways to show the world that Jesus is truly present. How has Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist impacted your journey? Read below from a Sacred Heart Parishioners how the Eucharist has impacted their life.

"At Mass, I can receive the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus in such an intimate way. For a time, I am His tabernacle! It is my obligation, then, by word and example, to bring Jesus to others."
