Sacred Heart ~ Parish Mission Statement

We at Sacred Heart parish are a welcoming and diverse community rooted in our Catholic Faith and rich heritage. Through worship, evangelization, ministries, service, parochial education, and lifelong faith formation, we are called to build the kingdom of Jesus in this time and place.

Dear Parishioners,

We are hoping to have our Gathering Center open for use by March 1st. Furniture will be delivered in the upcoming days and we will be doing final cleaning of the facility in the days before we open. The main thing that we are waiting for right now is for hand rails to be put up on the outside of the building. It is dangerous not to have them in place. We should have those by March 1st.

March 18th will be the Day that Bishop Lou will be coming to bless our new Gathering Center. One hundred years ago Bishop Dunn came to bless Sacred Heart Church. It was in the April of 1923. This was a wonderful day for our parish. Hundreds of members gathered that day. There was a four year building process so people had to be very patient.

Now, one hundred years later we have updated Sacred Heart Church in many ways. The addition will afford us modern conveniences that will carry us through this century.

One of the maxims our ancestors believed in was that we give our best back to God. We don't just make do when it comes to our liturgical space. I am glad that so many parishioners still believe that today.

May Our Lady pray for us as dedication day approaches.

Fr. Mark

Alleman Catholic High School

The student body of Alleman Catholic High School would like to help St. Ambrose University in its efforts to raise money for the University of Iowa Children's Hospital. This year Alleman is hosting our 10th annual Dance Marathon, and our catchphrase is "DM10, A Decade of Dancing for Those Who Can't." Donations collected for Alleman's Dance Marathon will help sustain extraordinary programs at the University of Iowa Children's Hospital which aid the emotional and financial support for patients and their families. Money that is raised will provide comfort kits containing care items for families while a loved one is receiving medical treatment. Proceeds provide a "home away from home" for children in the care of University of Iowa Children's Hospital.

On Friday, March 3rd, 2023, the St. Ambrose community will join together with the Alleman community to raise funds, educate the community, and celebrate life with our families we are hosting at our dance, who are currently receiving care from University of Iowa Children's Hospital.

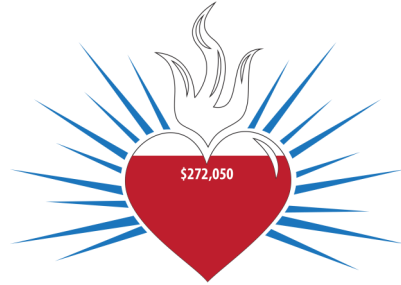

Alleman Students will be at the doors after Mass on Saturday, February 25th, and Sunday, February 26th. Any donation you can make is greatly appreciated. With your generous donations, we will continue to give hope to children and their families who spend weeks or months in the Children's Hospital. Thank you for your continued support in helping the students of Alleman to make a difference!

MAR 2

Dear Friends,

Pause with me to do a little "heart check" right now. Take a few moments to reflect on these questions: What weighs on your heart, perhaps causing you pain, anger, sorrow or frustration? What delights your heart, bringing you joy, peace, excitement or happiness? What pulls your heart into deeper wondering and reflection? Finally, to whom do you go to share these movements of your heart?

Many people, it seems, find it hard to share with others what is in their hearts. Perhaps a deep reason behind this is a fear we all have in common: vulnerability. Whom can I trust with the joys, sorrows and secrets of my heart? As we journey through life, the Lord will often help us discover that trustworthy person in a family member or close friend. But all along this pilgrimage to Heaven, there is only One who is always trustworthy and absolutely steadfast, and His name is Jesus.

As we recall the Presentation of the Lord and Simeon's declaration that the infant Jesus is light for the nations and the glory of Israel (Lk 2:32), the Church celebrates World Day of Consecrated Life. As a religious sister, I find this day an opportunity for gratitude and reflection as I consider the great gift of grace God has given me in my vocational state in life. Yet, like all vocations in the Church, my vocation is not for me alone! It is meant to help build up the Body of Christ. Whether it is through bringing young people to encounter Jesus in the Eucharist ("Transforming encounter"), teaching about the great mysteries of our faith ("St. Thomas Aquinas on the Eucharist"), using creativity to share the Gospel ("Revive!" Podcast) or other apostolic works like caring for the poor and the suffering, consecrated men and women across the ages have been entrusted with a precious task: to help the Church keep her eyes upon the one thing necessary, our Savior Jesus.

As we consider the centrality of Jesus for all of us today, I'm also very grateful to share a reflection from Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio on the Eucharist. This is the first in a new series of videos from our bishops, in which they share their personal and pastoral experiences of our Eucharistic Lord. Finally, don't miss Father Luke's latest column as he continues to take us step-by-step through the Mass.

Let's pray for one another as we prepare to enter into the Holy Season of Lent a profound opportunity for Eucharistic Renewal Jesus is offering to each and every one of us!

Litany of the Most Blessed Sacrament

Jesus, dwelling in the tabernacles of the world,

R: have mercy on us.

Jesus, really, truly and substantially present in the Blessed Sacrament,

R: have mercy on us.

Jesus, abiding in Your fulness, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity,

R: have mercy on us.

Be a witness for Jesus, let us hear your testimony .You can send your testimony to vaschneider@gmail.com.

The following is a quote from Saint Pope John Paul II in Jason Evert's book Saint John Paul The Great: His Five Loves.

"The Eucharist is the secret of my day. It gives strength and meaning to all of my activities of service to the Church and to the whole world...Let Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament speak to your hearts. It is He who is the true answer of life that you seek. He stays here with us: He is God with us. Seek Him without tiring, welcome Him without reserve, love Him without interruption: today, tomorrow, forever."
