Reconciliation

Saturday: 3:00 - 4:00pm in the Gathering Center or by appointment. Call the Parish Office at (309) 762-2362.

Dear Parishioners,

During the last year and half, we heard a lot about the Growing Disciples process. This is a strategic planning process for the Diocese of Peoria. Bishop Lou listened to the faithful who encouraged him to do long range planning.

The number of priests and religious is declining. The number of parishes does not change as fast. Populations in the diocese are shifting. The question is how we serve more diverse populations with less ministerial personnel. We can wait for things to unfold, or we can try to plan.

The bishop wants the input of the faithful. There is an open meeting on Wednesday, October 18th at 7 p.m. in the St. Damien Center to present the model proposed for making the best use of resources in the Rock Island Vicariate. The six leaders who were providing input from our parish are leading a discussion about the plan for our area.

There are videos that include a message from Bishop Lou. There are also handouts and a question-and-answer session. We will ask for your reactions. The program is slated to last an hour, but parish leaders will answer questions as long as necessary. Come and see how this plan will affect our parish community and the diocese.

May Our Lady pray for the future of our local church.

Fr. Mark

P.S. The Gathering Center was renamed to the St. Damien

Parish Pastoral Council Seeking New Members

The Pastoral Council of Sacred Heart Parish is seeking new members. This 9–12 member board advises the pastor on matters concerning evangelization and stewardship. We are seeking two new members. The commitment is for three years. If you are interested in serving, please submit your name to our office or speak to a Pastoral Council member. You can also drop your name in the collection in a white envelope marked parish council. We also take nominations of people that others would like to recommend. Again, just drop the names in the collection in an envelope marked Parish Council. We hope to seat new members in January.

PENNIES FOR LIFE - RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY OCTOBER 21-22

Under the auspices of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, October is designated Respect Life Month. Each parishioner is asked to contribute one cent for each year of his/her life in thanksgiving to God for the gift of life God has given them. Volunteers will be at all doors to accept your donations. Thank you for your generous gift!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION:
DOING IS GOOD; BEING IS EVEN BETTER

By Sister Alicia Torres

I am not totally sure how my parents felt when I told them I'd signed up for the 3 AM hour of prayer on Good Friday when I was 16 years old. Our parish had invited us to "watch an hour" with Jesus, and I certainly didn't want him to be alone for one minute. There was only one small detail I'd neglected to consider: I didn't have a driver's license yet!

But I remember my father quietly driving me to church that dark New England night without any sense of tension, and to this day I have no idea what he was thinking as he watched from the back pew as I silently knelt before the altar of repose.

Admittedly, I was a rather pious child, and an equally zealous teen: anything I could do to be a better Catholic, I wanted to do. If that meant kneeling before the Eucharist in the wee hours of the morning during the Easter triduum, well, I was game.

Little did I realize, though, that as I kept Jesus company on that deep, dark night, he was not only planting the seeds of my vocation, but helping me discover a great secret: that while what I did for him was good, who I am in him was even better — a truth he longed to share with me.

Years later, I was in the midst of a crisis. As a young Franciscan sister, I had sustained a serious head injury, the trauma of which so affected me that I could do nothing. I lay in bed all day, and my only recourse was our daily Mass and holy hour, for which I somehow mustered the strength to be present. I went from running marathons, unloading 40 lb. boxes of chicken at our food pantry and writing research papers for my graduate degree to doing literally nothing.

I was very sick, and it was very hard. But in that God-permitted time of suffering, pain and isolation there was finally the space for Jesus to allow those seeds planted so long ago to begin to bear fruit. Slowly, in prayer before the Eucharist and in the solitude of my room, I realized that I was never alone — not because our faithful German Shepherd, Liberty, kept constant watch over me but because all around me and within me was the secret, silent, hidden presence of God.

So many years before, I had had a desire to watch one hour with him; now I began to understand that all my life, Jesus had been delighting in watching every moment of every hour with me.

Praise God, I recovered from my head injury, finished grad school, professed final vows in 2015 and continue to live and serve among the very poor on Chicago's West side with my Franciscan community. I even ran another marathon in 2018 to help raise funds for our apostolate.

I have never lost the profound sense of gift that came of recognizing that Jesus is ever present to me. This confidence is renewed every day at every Mass, where Jesus' passion, death, resurrection and ascension is represented for you and for me: this is his daily giving of himself, completely. This gift of presence is also deepened during every moment of every holy hour I have the privilege to attend.

Because I have grown to see Jesus present in the Eucharist, I am more able to see him in my brothers and sisters — especially those most broken and lost ones. Jesus is ever present to me, and I long to be present to him. I am sure I would be lost without him, and yet with him, not only am I found, but I am truly home, and on my way home. I can't even imagine what it will be like to enter the Kingdom one day, and realize what it means to watch, to be present, to be united with Jesus not just for an hour, a day or a lifetime but for all of Eternity.

Why are we doing Growing Disciples as a Diocese? We are Growing Disciples. Bishop Tylka chose that title intentionally. The world is different and we have to find new ways of doing things. We have fewer priests. Fewer Catholics. Fewer children. People are moving. We have to reimagine the way we reach people with the Good News.

The Growing Disciples process is designed to provoke conversation, to gather data and receive feedback. No final decision is made – and Bishop Tylka will consider all of the data and your feedback as he discerns the future footprint of the Diocese of Peoria. Please attend our parish meeting, on Wednesday, October 18, at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Damien Center and check out growingdisciples.cdop.org for information about how the second draft models were created and how to provide your feedback to them. Please continue to pray that all our efforts today will bear fruit for a brighter tomorrow.
